More than 100 people, all donors to the Rancho Santa Fe Foundation, gathered on the evening of May 31st, at the home of Kathy and Chuck Yash, to be honored for their support to the Foundation in the past year.

Chairman Greg Hillgren, welcomed the donors and acknowledged the philanthropic work that the Foundation has undertaken with their help. With assets that have grown to nearly $24 million, the Foundation made more than $5.2 million in grants in 2006. Nearly $2 million in grants have been made so far this year.
