FOUNDATION HONORS THREE DIRECTORS FOR SERVICE

Accolades were passed all around the room as the Foundation held its Annual Board Dinner, on the evening of November 14th, which was hosted by The Inn at Rancho Santa Fe. Three Directors were honored for completion of nine years of service on the Board. Gayle Gillies Mize, Neil Ash and Don Oliphant joined the Board in 1999 and have served with distinction ever since. Both Gayle and Don have served a two year term as Chairman of the Board and Neil served as the chairman of the Audit Committee for several years. Four other directors have also been honored in the past for nine years of service. They are Margaret Carl-Swirles, Tony Wilson, Murray Hutchison and John Seiber.

The Rancho Santa Fe Foundation's Board of Directors is comprised of volunteers from diverse professional backgrounds who set priorities, establish policy and inspire the Foundation's work. Recognized as leaders in the community, the Directors are our best ambassadors and they stand ready to assist you with any information you need about the Foundation and its services.
